SEASON PREVIEW

The numbers are staggering.

Seven consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and seven consecutive opening-round wins. Three straight seasons of at least 20 wins or more. Two regular-season ACC co-championships in the past three years. A perennial top-15 team.

Perhaps the most appropriate number, though, is 98 when talking about the 2011-12 Florida State women's basketball team -- as in the number of wins that former players Courtney Ward and Christian Hunnicutt helped earn during their fantastic four-year careers.

Ward, the program's all-time 3-point leader, and Hunnicutt, last year's ACC Defensive Player of the Year, tied the school record for most wins during a women's basketball career. If this year's 'Noles want to make it eight consecutive trips to the Big Dance, hit the 20-win plateau once again, push for ACC glory and remain one of the top teams in the nation, they must now do so without two proven winners.

"They were vital roles to our success not only last year but for their four years here," said head coach Sue Semrau, who is now in her 15th season in Tallahassee. "Experience is a hard thing to replace. The nice thing about our team this year is that even though we lost those two we return a huge core of players who now are one year more experienced, one year stronger and one year more skilled."

Semrau's confidence in her team stems from the foundation that has been built over the last 15 years. Before Ward and Hunnicutt it was Jacinta Monroe, Alysha Harvin and Angel Gray. Before that terrific trio it was the dynamic duo of Mara Freshour and Tanae Davis-Cain and the list goes on and on.

Now, it's time for a new crop of Seminoles to step up and fill the void left from those that have graduated before them.

Semrau thinks that two sophomores in particular are up for the task.

"I am excited about the growth in the players that we have," Semrau said. "Obviously we knew there would come a day when Courtney and Christian would graduate and move on. So we went out and recruited Olivia Bresnahan and Tay'ler Mingo. It was always part of the plan that they would learn as understudies. The same thing was true for Courtney when she got here. She had to wait her turn to shine and she did."

Charged with helping polish Mingo, Bresnahan, Leonor Rodriguez and freshmen Kristi Mokube, Ebony Wells and Emma Loucks, are a group of experienced veterans. And no current player knows more about what it takes to meet the lofty expectations that Semrau's program yearly warrants than the team's lone senior, Cierra Bravard.

An All-ACC First Team selection and honorable mention All-American as a junior, Bravard cemented her place as one of the top players in the nation last year and already has the preseason recognition to prove it this year.

This month Bravard has already been named to the John R. Wooden Award Women's Preseason Top 30 list and the Wade Award Preseason Watch List. She's also been recognized as a preseason All-America First Team selection by The Sporting News.

Bravard's transition into a go-to player, nationally-recognized name and unquestioned leader isn't by chance. The Sandusky, Ohio native put in the necessary time to make that happen and because of her tireless work ethic, Bravard's senior season has a strong possibility of being her best.

"She has gotten committed and stayed committed," Semrau said. "The thing about Cierra is that once she took that first step in, then she was all in. She is a player that in her time already has dropped 45 pounds and has kept it off. She has continued to become a better athlete every year as well as a better basketball player."

In addition to her dominating presence in the paint during games, Semrau credits Bravard's full effort in practice with helping bring out the best in her fellow post players.

"They can see it in pick-up," Semrau said about forwards Chelsea Davis, Natasha Howard, Lauren Coleman, Wells and Mokube. "They turn around and say, 'I don't want to guard her.' It's a great thing to be with them in individual workouts and practice and say, 'Well you are guarding her.' It makes them better. I think it has been interesting to watch Chelsea's growth underneath Cierra. It has been fantastic."

While Davis continues to benefit from Bravard's tutelage, Howard will be asked to take the next step in her development.

Natasha Howard has the chance to have a breakout season as a sophomore.

Howard came to Tallahassee last season as the most hyped and anticipated recruit in the history of women's basketball at Florida State and she didn't disappoint. Howard started every game as a true freshman and earned freshman All-American and All-ACC Freshman Team honors.

But for everything good that Howard did on the court, there was always a feeling that she had so much more room for improvement. It's a scary thought for anyone that will have to play against the Seminoles the next three years -- especially considering the fact that she has used her first offseason in the program to hit the weight room and the practice courts at the Basketball Training Center.

"Her strength is at a completely different point," Semrau said. "I think that is huge. She has better balance now. She turned the ball over a little more than we wanted her to last year because she didn't have great balance at that speed. Now her balance at that speed has improved and her ball handling has improved. Her potential is unlimited."

Howard and Bravard will generate the most buzz this season but redshirt juniors Alexa Deluzio and Chasity Clayton will be asked to take on the most important roles of their basketball-playing lives.

Deluzio, a sharp-shooting guard with the ability to take defenders off the dribble, and Clayton, FSU's top overall athlete, are expected to team with Bravard in creating a playmaking, leadership-providing core that every championship contender must have.

"Now everybody steps into a different role this season," Semrau said. "Cierra has done her work all summer, 'Lex' has done her work all summer and 'Chas' has done her work all summer. Those are three kids that have the credibility to lead. I think that's really the most vital part of it. You don't want to follow someone that hasn't put in the work and those three have put in the work."

"I think this team is in great shape because of them."

— Brandon Mellor, Seminole.com Senior Writer

Alexa Deluzio heads into her redshirt junior season expected to be an overall leader as well as a top offensive threat for the Noles.

SENIOR

BRAVARD 54

“Cierra is an All-American in my opinion. She’s got great hands. She can finish. She is strong. She knows it’s her job to hold down the paint on both ends of the floor, and she relishes it. She had a great year last year and worked even harder this summer and got in even better shape. She is poised to have a great year.”

HEAD COACH
15TH SEASON
UC-SAN DIEGO '85

• THREE-TIME ACC COACH OF THE YEAR

• ALL-TIME WINNINGEST COACH IN FSU HISTORY

• WBCA VICE-PRESIDENT

She may be the winningest coach in Florida State women's basketball history, but one doesn't have to look at Sue Semrau's career record to know that she has built a successful and nationally-relevant program the right way.

Now in her 15th year at FSU, Semrau, a three-time winner of the ACC Coach of the Year award, has earned a reputation as a coach that not only keeps her team in the national rankings by leading her players to victory but also one that helps foster the personal and professional growth of the student-athletes.

The 2009-10 season served as the perfect example of just how strong Florida State's women's basketball program has become. Semrau's Seminoles captured their second consecutive regular-season ACC co-championship and made it all the way to the Elite Eight of the annual NCAA Tournament as a program-best No. 3 seed. Along the way, FSU set the school record for most wins in a season with 29, most conference triumphs ever with 12 and highest national ranking ever at No. 9.

After the season was complete, star forward Jacinta Monroe then traveled to New Jersey where she was taken sixth overall in the 2010 WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics; a draft slot that was the highest ever for an FSU women's basketball player. The selection of Monroe marked the eighth Seminole in Semrau's tenure to be drafted into the WNBA.

After a 24-8 campaign in 2010-11, the Seminoles extended their NCAA Tournament streak to seven consecutive years, nabbing another No. 3 seed along the way. The streak is the longest of any Division I basketball program -- male or female -- in the state of Florida. During this impressive stretch, the Seminoles have averaged 23.7 wins per year, including 10.1 victories in ACC play.

Florida State has been its most dominant in the last three years, tying with Duke for the most wins in ACC play with 35 since 2008-09. The Seminoles back-to-back 12-2 league records in 2008-09 and 2009-10 earned the squad a share of first-place in the ACC's regular season standings. Additionally, the Seminoles have been exceptional on the road in conference play, nabbing an undefeated 7-0 away mark in the ACC in 2008-09 and holding an 18-3 conference road mark the past three years.

Semrau's overall record stands at 258-174 since she took over FSU in 1997. She was named ACC Coach of the Year in 2001, 2005 and 2009.

Well-respected among her peers in the coaching community, Semrau was elected vice president of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) and captured a gold medal as a member of the coaching staff for the United States U19 team this summer.

For the second straight summer, Semrau helped lead a national team to a gold medal, as Team USA won the 2011 FIBA U19 World Championship gold medal in August in Puerto Montt, Chile. In 2010, Semrau served as an assistant on the gold medal-winning United States squad at the FIBA U18 World Championship.

Semrau's personality and coaching style has been embraced by all who have come in contact with her. An accomplished public speaker and philanthropist, she has won the hearts of the Florida State media, fans and -- most importantly -- the student-athletes.

Semrau's commitment to community service has also been a priority for the program. The past three years, Semrau has partnered the Seminole with Samaritan's Feet, a non-profit organization dedicated to changing lives through Shoes of Hope distributions around the world. Semrau annually will coach a game barefoot in an effort to raise money, and last season the Seminoles took a break from the Junkanoo Jam in the Bahamas to give back on Thanksgiving. The squad spent time at the Lewis Yard Primary School in Freeport, Bahamas, interacting with children and measuring, washing and placing brand new shoes on their feet.

Additionally, the Seminoles have performed a variety of services throughout the Tallahassee area and have been known to extend a helping hand when on the road, making visits to the Boys and Girls Club at the Coalition for the Homeless in Orlando and elementary schools in Harlem, West Chester and Wadsworth, Ohio and Martinsville, Ind., as well as the Duke Hospital in Durham, N.C.

Prior to coming to Florida State, Semrau served three years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Wisconsin under Jane Albright. While in Madison, she contributed to the Badgers' three-straight winning seasons and two NCAA Tournament appearances, including the program's first ever back-to-back 20-win seasons. Semrau was also noted for her recruiting efforts at Wisconsin with a 1995 recruiting class that ranked eighth in the country by Blue Star Index. Semrau first joined Albright at Northern Illinois in 1991 where she assisted in leading NIU to three consecutive NCAA tournament appearances.

Prior to her hiring at Northern Illinois, Semrau served as head women's basketball coach and assistant athletic director at Occidental College in Los Angeles for four years where she compiled a 51-47 overall record. She also coached soccer for two seasons and was responsible for the administrative duties of fundraising and promotions at the Division III institution. At Occidental, Semrau was a member of the NCAA regional selection committee and chaired the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference for women's basketball.

Semrau also worked as the public relations and promotions director for the L.A. Heat professional soccer team from 1986-87, and the public relations director for the Seattle Storm soccer team in the previous year.

A native of Seattle, Wash., Semrau is a graduate of Shorecrest High School. She went on to attend the University of Puget Sound for two years. Semrau transferred to the University of California-San Diego in 1984 where she finished her career ranking 13th all-time in scoring and fourth all-time in assists. She graduated in 1985 with a Bachelor's Degree in communications and received her Master's Degree in athletic administration from the University of Southern California in 1988.

HEAD COACH SUE SEMRAU

SEMRAU THROUGH THE YEARS

SUE SEMRAU is hired as Florida State's head coach — the program's third new coach in three years. The program is coming off of a 5-22 season, including a winless season in ACC play at 0-16. In her first season at the helm of the program, Sue Semrau leads Florida State to its most victories since 1992-93 (9-18) and its best ACC record (5-11) and finish since 1992-93, including its largest victory by margin over an ACC opponent (88-53 over Georgia Tech). Latavia Coleman was named Second Team All-ACC while Brooke Wyckoff was named to the ACC All-Freshman Team.

THE SEMINOLES were 5-5 when leading scorer Latavia Coleman was lost for the season with a torn ACL and the team won just two more games the rest of the season and finished 7-20. Sue Semrau and her staff signed the No. 8 ranked recruiting class in the nation. Brooke Wyckoff was named Third Team All-ACC while April Traylor was named to the ACC All-Freshman Team.

SUE SEMRAU LED FSU to an 12-18 record while the Seminoles played 12 games against NCAA Tournament teams and eight nationally-ranked teams. The Seminoles were competitive as seven of the team's ACC losses were by five points or less. FSU won its first round game at the ACC Tournament with a 65-60 victory over Maryland marking the first time the Seminoles had won a game in the tournament. Latavia Coleman scored 31 points in that game and became the first Seminole since 1993 to earn ACC Tournament First Team honors. For the season, Coleman was named Second Team All-ACC, Brooke Wyckoff was named Third Team All-ACC and to the All-Defensive Team while April Traylor earned Honorable Mention honors. Coleman became the first Seminole to be drafted to the WNBA as a third round selection and the 48th pick overall.

2000-01

IN SUE SEMRAU'S fourth year, she led Florida State to the program's best season in a decade. What a year it was and it started early as the Seminoles practiced 10 days in August before embarking on a 10-day European adventure to France and Switzerland where they played four games and won them by an average of 47 points. The Seminoles went on to record the program's most wins (19-12) in 10 years, advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 1990-91 season and had their first winning season since 1991-92. FSU's 9-7 ACC record was the program's best record and finish (tied for 3rd) in league play. FSU finished ranked No. 25 nationally, the program's first national ranking since 1991. Semrau was named ACC Coach of the Year. Brooke Wyckoff was named a First Team All-ACC selection and was the first FSU player since 1992-93 to garner such status. She also earned ACC All-Defensive Team honors for the second straight season. Levys Torres and April Traylor were named Third Team All-ACC. Wyckoff was selected in the second round as the 26th overall pick in the WNBA Draft while Torres was a third round selection (37th pick).

THE SEMINOLES once again played some of the nation's toughest opponents with five games against Top 10 opponents, 11 games total against Top 25 teams and 12 games against NCAA Tournament teams. Six of FSU's losses (13-15) were by four points or less. Tashaika Morris earned Third Team All-ACC honors. April Traylor was Honorable Mention All-ACC while Genesis Choice was named to the ACC All-Freshman Team.

2002-03

FLORIDA STATE made its second post-season tournament appearance in three years, playing in the WNIT and advancing to the second round. Sue Semrau guided the Seminoles to another winning season (17-13), the second in three years, and to a fourth-place finish in the ACC, which was rated No. 2 among 32 conferences in RPI rankings. Tashaika Morris earned Second Team All-ACC honors while Ganiyat Adeduntan garnered Honorable Mention ACC All-Freshman Team honors.

DESPITE THE LOSS of starter LaQuinta Neely just six games into the season, Sue Semrau led the Seminoles to another WNIT appearance, marking the third post-season tournament appearance in four years and to a 15-15 record. Tashaika (Morris) Allen was named Second Team All-ACC while rookie Shante Williams earned Honorable Mention All-ACC honors and All-Freshman Team accolades.

THE FLORIDA STATE women's basketball program suffered a tragedy with the sudden death of rising sophomore Ronaldia Pierce in June 2004. Sue Semrau provided the strength and leadership to pull her team through the devastation and introduced Phase Two of the program which was about personal responsibility, selflessness and a championship mentality. The Seminoles flourished in the new system and established the best start in school history (12-0) on their way to the program's first 20-win season (24-8) since 1990-91. With a second round appearance in the NCAA Tournament, FSU made its third straight post-season tournament appearance and fourth in a five-year stretch. FSU spent five weeks nationally-ranked and earned its first Associated Press ranking since 1991. Semrau, who guided FSU to another fourth-place ACC finish, was recognized with her second ACC Coach of the Year award while Roneeka Hodges became the third Seminole to earn First Team All-ACC honors. Ganiyat Adeduntan and Alicia Gladden earned Honorable Mention All-ACC recognition while Gladden was also named to the ACC All-Defensive Team. Hodges earned Kodak Region All-American honors, was a WBCAAI Star and became FSU's highest WNBA Draft pick as the first player called in the second round and the 15th pick overall.

FOLLOWING A 10-DAY tour of Italy in August in which the Seminoles went 4-0 and averaged 97.8 points per game while holding opponents to 47.8 points per game, FSU continued the success it enjoyed in 2004-05. For just the second time in program history, and first since 1990 and 1991, Florida State participated in back-to-back NCAA Tournaments as Sue Semrau guided the Seminoles to a 20-10 and a second round NCAA Tourney appearance. The Seminoles also enjoyed back-to-back 20-win seasons for just the second time in program history. The Seminoles earned their most ACC wins with a 10-4 record and another fourth-place finish. Semrau became FSU women's basketball's winningest coach by victories. Alicia Gladden earned Third Team All-ACC honors and was named to the ACC All-Defensive Team for the second straight season. Britany Miller garnered ACC All-Freshman Team honors. FSU had a lot to celebrate with the Class of 2006. The first class to lead FSU to seven or more ACC victories in four consecutive seasons, this group led the team to a record fourth-straight post-season appearance and averaged 19 wins per season which is the most in the Semrau era and second most in FSU history.

2006-07

THE 10TH SEASON under Sue Semrau couldn't have been any sweeter as her 2006-07 squad made school history. A 68-61 victory over Stanford in the second round of the NCAA Tournament sent the Seminoles to their first NCAA Tournament Sweet 16. Florida State had its magical run cut short 55-43 by LSU in the semifinals of the Fresno Regional. The Seminoles ended the season with a 24-10 record to mark the first time in school history that the program put together three-straight 20-win seasons and went to the NCAA Tournament three years in a row. Florida State cracked the top 20 of the final USA Today/Coaches Poll as its No. 19 ranking is the highest end-of-year ranking and matched the highest rating ever at any point in the season. Senior Alicia Gladden finished her career as the Seminoles' all-time leader in steals at 275 swipes on her way to her second Third-Team All-ACC selection. Rookie forward Jacinta Monroe swatted 63 balls — the third-highest total in school history — to earn her a spot on the ACC All-Freshman team. Within the league ranks, Florida State matched a program-best by finish the league ledger at 10-4.

GOOD TIMES continued to roll along for the Florida State women's basketball program as Sue Semrau led the Noles to their fourth consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament where they won a first round game for the fourth consecutive season. The Seminoles downed nationally-ranked Ohio State by a score of 60-49 in Des Moines, Iowa to move Semrau to a perfect 5-0 in the NCAA First Round games. FSU had an All-ACC Honorable Mention pick in Tanae Davis-Cain as well as an All-ACC Academic selection in Mara Freshour while also picking up ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District honors as well. The Seminoles began the season ranked 19th in the country and went up to a program-best No. 18 during the course of the campaign. Semrau led the Seminoles to a 7-7 mark in the ACC, which placed them in a tie for fifth place in the league. Those seven victories gave Semrau a total of 75 ACC triumphs for her career, which is the eighth-best mark in the history of the league. In addition, senior Shante Williams broke the school record for career assists with 451, after putting together three seasons in which she tallied at least 100 dishes. Semrau continued to lead FSU to in-state dominance as the Seminoles won 12 consecutive games against rivals from the Sunshine State, topped by a thrilling 50-49 victory over Miami during the final week of the regular season. Florida State was one of the top three-point shooting teams in the conference and dropped in a school-record 182 three-pointers, besting the old mark by 16. In addition to being prolific, the Seminoles were accurate from behind the arc, hitting 35.7 percent, which is the best rate since the 1988-89 squad set the record of 43.4 percent the year the three-point line was instituted. Setting the record was a team effort as seven players made at least one three pointers and five hit at least 10 three balls during the season.

THE SEMINOLES returned to the tournament for a fifth consecutive time and turned in one of the best seasons in school history. Sue Semrau led her squad to a 26-8 record. Sue Semrau earned her third career ACC Coach of the Year honor for her performance on the bench as she once again helped lead the Seminoles to new heights. The Seminoles earned their highest NCAA Tournament seed in Seminole annals as well when they earned the third seed in the Trenton Regional. Seniors Mara Freshour and Tanae Davis-Cain wrapped up their impressive careers in 08-09 as the duo went out on top with one of the finest seasons for the Seminole program. Freshour and Davis-Cain each earned ACC All-Tournament Second Team honors for their roles in helping Florida State to the second round of the ACC Tournament. The Seminoles were road warriors in 08-09 as they posted a perfect 10-0 record on the road, including a 7-0 mark in the ACC which helped propel them to a share of the regular season title with Maryland. Jacinta Monroe set a new school single-season blocks record with 84 and became FSU's all-time blocks leader with 225 in just three years. Monroe would be honored by the ACC when she was named to the ACC All-Defensive teams for her efforts on the defensive end of the floor. Also earning plaudits for the Seminoles was freshman Cierra Bravard who turned in a stellar opening campaign en route to being named to the ACC All-Freshman team. In addition to Monroe's defensive honors she was also named to the All-ACC Second Team, while Mara Freshour and Tanae Davis-Cain each earned third team honors. The Seminoles advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the seventh consecutive time.

FLORIDA STATE followed up its fantastic 2008-09 season with an even better year in 2009-10. When the year had finished, head coach Sue Semrau was able to look back on it as not just the best season in her career but in the history of the program. The Seminoles earned the second-straight regular-season ACC co-championship and advanced to the Big Dance for the sixth consecutive season. Tallahassee served as the host site for the Dayton Regional and FSU promptly dispatched St. John's and Louisiana Tech to advance to the Sweet 16. In Dayton, Semrau's Seminoles took down Mississippi State to earn an Elite Eight berth for the first time ever. Florida State finished the season with a school-record 29 wins to go along with just six losses. The team finished 12-2 in the very difficult ACC for the second year in a row and had two players - Courtney Ward (second team) and Jacinta Monroe (first team) - earn All-Conference accolades. After the season, Semrau's star pupil, Monroe, was selected sixth overall in the WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics, which is the highest draft slot ever for an FSU women's basketball player.

IN 2010-11, head coach Sue Semrau's 14th at Florida State, saw the Noles continue their run of successful seasons by advancing to their seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament, grabbing their second-straight No. 3 seed. FSU finished 24-8 - the sixth 20-win season under Semrau - and 11-3 in the ACC. Led by honorable mention All-American and All-ACC First Team honoree Cierra Bravard, the Garnet and Gold made it to the second round of the "Big Dance" and finished ranked No. 15 in the country. Senior guards Christian Hunicutt and Courtney Ward also wrapped up their careers with honors. Hunicutt became the first Nole named ACC Defensive Player of the Year, while Ward captured third-team All-ACC accolades. Ward ended her career as FSU's all-time leader in three-pointers and assists. Freshman sensation Natasha Howard averaged 10.6 ppg en route to third-team Freshman All-America and All-ACC Freshman Team honors. Ward led the conference in three-point shooting, while sophomore Alexa Deluzio led the ACC in three-point percentage in conference play as FSU led the ACC in team field goal percentage and three-point percentage for the second straight year.

COACHING STAFF

JOHNSON

ANGIE JOHNSON
ASSISTANT COACH
LOUISVILLE '91

Now entering her 15th season as an assistant coach on the Florida State women's basketball team, Angie Johnson has proven herself to be not only a top-notch instructor of the game, but also one of the country's most proficient recruiters.

Serving as the Seminoles' recruiting coordinator, Johnson has brought some of the nation's top talent to Tallahassee since she started at FSU in 1997. Recently, she was instrumental in Florida State's 2010 Class that ranked No. 6 nationally and featured the country's No. 2 player Natasha Howard.

Johnson has been with head coach Sue Semrau every step of the way, helping build the Noles into a perennial NCAA Tournament team and ACC Championship contender. In 2009 and 2010, the Garnet and Gold won back-to-back ACC regular season co-championships and advanced to the program's first Elite Eight in 2010. In 2010-11, Florida State competed in its school-record seventh straight NCAA Tournament and ninth consecutive postseason overall. Since 2008-09, the Seminoles' 35 wins in conference play are tied for the most in the ACC. Along the way, eight Seminoles have been drafted by the WNBA since 2000.

Johnson's fun-loving and down-to-earth personality make her a hit as a recruiter and also as a mentor to current student-athletes. A former collegiate star in her own right at Louisville, Johnson knows all that goes into being a championship-level student-athlete.

In her role, Johnson also oversees the Seminoles' work in the classroom, collaborating closely with the athletic academic support staff in monitoring academic progress. Over the past several seasons, FSU women's basketball has carved its place as one of the most successful ACC school's in the classroom. Since the All-ACC Academic Women's Basketball Team's inception in 1998, Florida State has had 27 members on the squad. In addition, since 1998, FSU has had 70 ACC Academic Honor Roll selections, which leads the conference. In 2007-08, and again in 2008-09, Mara Freshour earned Academic All-ACC honors as well as ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District laurels. This past season, Christian Hunnicutt became the third Nole to capture a postgraduate scholarship from the ACC as well as earning her second straight Academic All-ACC honor.

Johnson has held responsibilities with nearly every facet of the program since joining Florida State in 1997 after three years as an assistant at the University of Wisconsin. Prior to joining the Badger staff, Johnson was the assistant basketball coach at Paul G. Blazer High School in her hometown of Ashland, Ky. She was a four-year letterwinner at the University of Louisville from 1987-91. A 6-0 center, she ranked among the Cardinals' top 10 in career rebounds (621) and games played (120). Johnson, who earned her degree in biology, was the recipient of the Ed Kallay Senior Award in 1991 and was a Woodford R. Porter Scholar.

WHITE

LANCE WHITE
NINTH SEASON
TEXAS TECH '96

Considered by head coach Sue Semrau to be one of the rising stars of the coaching profession when she hired him in June of 2003, Lance White has helped Florida State rise to new heights and has brought an energy to the program over the course of his nine-year tenure in Tallahassee.

Previously the defensive coordinator for the past seven years, White will now direct the Seminole offense beginning the 2011-12 season. He will continue to hold responsibilities with recruiting, film and opponent breakdown and assisting with camps each summer.

Under White's coordination, Florida State had one of the nation's best defenses in recent years. The Seminoles set a school record during the 2008-09 campaign by limiting opponents to 61.1 points per game. The Garnet and Gold then broke that record in 2009-10 with a season that saw them hold opponents to just 60.8 points per contest.

Since White's arrival, Florida State has had a number of individual defensive stars, including 2011 ACC Defensive Player of the Year Christian Hunnicutt. Hunnicutt joined Jacinta Monroe (2009-10) and Alica Gladden (2004-07) as Seminoles who made the ACC All-Defensive Team in recent years.

Since White joined the staff, FSU has a 70 percent winning percentage and has averaged over 22 wins a season, easily the best eight-year stretch in the program's history.

White was well prepared when he arrived at Florida State. He came from Texas Tech where he spent 10 seasons, including seven years as an assistant coach, with the Lady Raiders' top-10 program.

Some of White's responsibilities at Texas Tech included individual workouts, scouting reports, perimeter and post player development and all aspects of recruiting, including mail correspondence and recruiting visits. White also served as the academic liaison for the women's basketball team, directing study hall and monitoring academic progress while also handling player relations.

During White's time in Lubbock, Texas Tech won three Big XII championships and advanced to seven-straight NCAA Tournaments, including five Sweet Sixteen and two Elite Eight appearances. He was a student assistant on Tech's 1993 National Championship team and a graduate assistant coach for two seasons before being elevated to a full-time coach.

While in Lubbock, Texas, White worked with some of the best players the game has ever seen. Among the players he influenced were National Player of the Year and three-time WNBA Player of the Year Sheryl Swoopes and Plenette Pierson, who was named 2007 WNBA Sixth Woman of the Year.

A 1996 graduate of Texas Tech, White earned his Bachelor's Degree in exercise and sports science. He went on to receive a Master's Degree in sports administration in August of 1998. As a high school athlete in Spur, Texas, he was a three-time All-District selection, two-time All-Region, and two-time third team all-state choice in basketball. His high school basketball and football teams advanced to the regional round both his junior and senior years. In addition to football and basketball accolades, he was listed in the Spalding Top 100 tennis players in 1991.

White is an NCAA certified recruiter and member of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association. He is married to the former Melanie Smith, who is a professor at Florida A&M University. The Whites are the proud parents of Quentin and Vivian.

WYCKOFF

BROOKE WYCKOFF
ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST SEASON
FLORIDA STATE '01

She sparked the rise of the Florida State women's basketball program as a standout player on the court from 1997 to 2001. Ten years later, Brooke Wyckoff has returned to the Seminoles – this time on the bench. The 2011-12 campaign will mark the Florida State Athletic Hall of Famer's first season as an assistant coach on Sue Semrau's staff.

"Brooke has been associated with every aspect of women's basketball," Semrau said. "As a player she excelled at every level from college to USA Basketball to the WNBA. As a coach, she has proven to be a strong teacher and has a passion for the defensive end of the floor. Brooke Wyckoff is a rising star in the coaching world."

Wyckoff replaces former associate head coach Cori Close, now the head coach at UCLA.

Wyckoff was one of the greatest Seminoles ever to wear the Garnet and Gold on the hardwood before playing nine seasons in the WNBA.

A native of West Chester, Ohio, the talented forward was one of the top high school players in the country before signing a National Letter of Intent with FSU in 1997 in what was Semrau's first season in Tallahassee.

In her rookie year, Wyckoff made an immediate impact as she set a single-season record at the time with 80 blocks on her way to earning ACC All-Freshman Team honors. Conference accolades continued to roll in during her next three years with a pair of All-ACC Third Team accolades (1999 and 2000) and finally an All-ACC First Team selection as a senior in 2001.

Wyckoff's 1,350 career points is still the 10th-most in school history and her 804 rebounds are sixth. She ranks No. 2 at FSU in career blocks with 209. She averaged 12.4 ppg and 7.4 rpg while starting all 109 games she played in her career.

Perhaps most importantly, Wyckoff was the cornerstone of the Seminoles' first winning season in nine years as the team posted a 19-12 record in 2001 and finished fourth in the ACC. That season culminated in the school's first trip to the NCAA Tournament in 10 years and All-America honors for Wyckoff, which was the first national accolade for an FSU women's basketball player since 1993. She capped her career by scoring 14.6 ppg and pulling down 6.6 rpg that final season.

"I am thrilled to be back with the Florida State University women's basketball program," Wyckoff said. "My experience here as a player was the springboard for so many wonderful opportunities over the last 10 years and it is an honor to come full circle and take the next step in my basketball career; this time as a coach. I am joining a spectacular group of student-athletes, coaches and administrators that have worked tirelessly to make FSU a top program and I am excited to work alongside them in their quest for a national championship."

In addition to boasting the honor of being just one of four former 'Noles to have their jerseys retired, Wyckoff was also an outstanding performer in the classroom. She is the only Seminole to ever earn four All-ACC Academic Women's Basketball Team honors as well as four nods to the ACC Academic Honor Roll.

In 2001 she earned an ACC Postgraduate scholarship and last year was named to the ACC Legends Class of 2010. In 2002, she was named to the 51-member ACC 50th Anniversary Women's Basketball Team. She also played with the USA Women's Basketball Select Team for three consecutive summers.

Last winter, Wyckoff was inducted into the Butler County Sports Hall of Fame. In September, she claimed another HOF honor, going into the Florida State Athletic Hall of Fame. She was also inducted into the Greater Cincinnati Basketball Hall of Fame in 2011.

Following her senior year, Wyckoff was selected by the Orlando Miracle in the second round of the WNBA Draft. She spent two seasons in Orlando before the team moved to Connecticut where she played another three seasons with the Sun.

She was then selected by the Chicago Sky in the 2006 WNBA Expansion draft and played for that franchise until 2009.

During her nine-year WNBA career, Wyckoff appeared in 242 games.

"I always knew she was going to be a good teacher someday," Connecticut Sun coach Mike Thibault said. "She's smart. She is a very upbeat person, which will serve her well out on the recruiting trail. Obviously being an alumnus there, she has a passion about the program. She was one of the best teammates we've ever had here."

After concluding her professional basketball career, Wyckoff served as an assistant girls basketball coach at Lakota East High School in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Upon her return to Tallahassee, Wyckoff will join a coaching staff that has directed a program to unprecedented new heights. The 2010-11 season marked FSU's school-record seventh consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament; a streak that is the longest of any Division I men's or women's basketball program in the state of Florida.

"Brooke Wyckoff was a tremendous asset to the Sky during her time in Chicago," Chicago Sky owner Michael Alter said. "She played with tremendous passion and energy. She had fun. She was a smart player and a great leader on and off the court. These are qualities that allowed her to flourish as a player, and we expect them to propel her to great heights as a coach. We wish her nothing but success."

BRUNER

MELISSA BRUNER
SIXTH SEASON
COE COLLEGE '94

In order to ensure that everything is running smoothly away from the basketball court, Florida State needs a "coach" behind the scenes. Now in her sixth season with the FSU women's basketball program, Melissa Bruner has the daunting task of keeping everyone on the same page as Director of Basketball Operations.

In her role, Bruner has a wide range of responsibilities in all facets of the program. She coordinates all areas of team travel and is also in charge of facility usage and management of all practices and games.

She assists head coach Sue Semrau with scheduling and serves as the program's liaison with the athletics department's administration. Bruner oversees the equipment operations for the program and assists with the Seminole girls' summer camps.

In addition to her administrative duties with the program, Bruner is also in her fifth season working as the color analyst for the radio broadcast of all FSU women's basketball games.

Bruner came to Florida State after serving four seasons as Assistant Athletics Director and head women's basketball coach at Coe College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. The Kohawks reached the IIAC Tournament all four years of her tenure and advanced to the quarterfinals in her final season.

Bruner's players earned six all-conference honors. Bruner and Semrau previously worked together for two seasons at the University of Wisconsin-Madison while Semrau was an assistant coach.

Bruner was Director of Women's Basketball Operations for the Badgers for seven years where she assisted in public relations, team travel and practice arrangements. Prior to her duties at Wisconsin, Bruner earned a master's degree in physical education, with a concentration in athletic administration, from Ohio University in June of 1995. She received her business administration and accounting degree with a minor in physical education from Coe College in 1994.

As a Kohawk, Bruner earned Academic All-Midwest Conference honors in softball, basketball, tennis and volleyball.

In recognition for her athletic and academic achievements, she was named a national GTE Academic All-American her senior year of college.

2010-11 REVIEW

The Florida State women's basketball team continued to cement itself among the nation's elite team in 2010-11, advancing to its seventh straight NCAA Tournament and snagging its fifth 20-win season in six years.

Head Coach Sue Semrau opened up the offense to run more and the result gave the Seminoles a 24-8 record overall and an 11-3 mark in ACC play. Along the way, FSU led the conference in field goal shooting and three-point percentage in ACC play.

Senior point guard Courtney Ward directed the offense and graduated as the Garnet and Gold's career leader in three-pointers (208) and assists (609). Her classmate Christian Hunnicutt led the FSU defense, routinely shutting down the opponent's best perimeter player en route to becoming the first Nole ever named the ACC Defensive Player of the Year.

Junior post Cierra Bravard nabbed First Team All-ACC and honorable mention All-America honors while leading FSU in scoring (15.0 ppg) and rebounding (7.8 rpg). The Sandusky, Ohio, native had a true breakout season as she more than doubled her scoring average from the 2009-10 campaign.

Redshirt sophomore guard Alexa Deluzio averaged 12.0 ppg and led the ACC in three-point percentage, making 49-percent of her trey tries in league play.

Ward averaged 12.1 ppg and shot 40.4-percent from behind the arc - best in the conference in all games.

Entering the season as a consensus top-five recruit, freshman Natasha Howard did not disappoint, averaging 10.6 ppg and 6.6 rpg, while earning Third Team Freshman All-America and All-ACC Freshman Team honors.

Reserve sophomore forwards Chelsea Davis and Chasity Clayton were also productive, combining to average over 14 ppg and 7 rpg.

The Seminoles began the 2010-11 season on a roll, winning their first six contests, including the Junkanoo Jam in the Bahamas at the end of November.

FSU suffered non-conference losses to Michigan State and at Yale and defending national champion and No. 1-ranked Connecticut, but never dropped out of the polls.

The Garnet and Gold entered ACC play with a 12-3 record and promptly won nine of its first 10 conference matchups.

Florida State was especially stout on the road in the conference, tallying a 6-1 mark, as FSU finished just one game away from a third-straight share of the ACC regular season title.

The Noles fell to North Carolina in the ACC Tournament, but still grabbed a second straight No. 3-seed in the NCAA Tournament - the highest ever by a Florida State team.

Florida State easily dispatched of Samford in the first round of the "Big Dance." However, the Seminoles' season came to the end with a two-point loss to Georgia in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

The ending to the 2010-11 campaign left a bitter taste in the mouths of the Seminoles, providing motivation for the 2011-12 team.

The Noles lose only Ward and Hunnicutt from last season's team, while returning nine letterwinners. Semrau's Seminoles should be poised for another 20-win season culminating with a high seed in the NCAA Tournament.

FSU's career leader in assists and three-pointers, Courtney Ward.

Junior post Cierra Bravard had a breakthrough 2010-11 season.

IN MEMORY

Matthew Schmauch, an Assistant Director of Academic Support who worked with the women's basketball program for four seasons, was instrumental in the academic success of FSU student-athletes. His influence went beyond the classroom. He was an ambassador, a mentor, a friend, a big brother, a fan — truly a shining example of where hard work and determination can take you. This award, established in his memory, is given annually to the women's basketball player who exemplifies these characteristics of leadership.

The Florida State Athletics Department lost a dear member of its Seminole family on June 13, 2003. Matt Schmauch, 29, an Assistant Director for the Athletic Academic Support Program at Florida State, died from anaphylaxis due to an allergic reaction to nuts while representing FSU at the N4A convention in St. Louis, Mo.

A native of Allen Park, Mich., Schmauch had been a valuable member of the athletic academic support staff since 1996. A glowing role model in the classroom, Schmauch earned a bachelor's degree in finance from Florida State in 1995 and went on to receive a master's degree in athletic administration from FSU in 1996.

In 2003-04, the Florida State women's basketball program created a special award in honor of Schmauch.

RONALDA PIERCE HEART AWARD

Daughter, sister, classmate, teammate, role model, friend and Seminole. Ronaldda Pierce meant so much to so many people. Although with us a short time, Ronaldda's memory will forever be etched in the hearts of the Seminole family. Ronaldda represented courage, heart, determination, growth and joy. It was these characteristics that allowed her to blossom into the person that was cherished by all who knew her. The recipient of this award exemplifies these same qualities of perseverance and heart.

On June 8, 2004, the Florida State women's basketball program lost a special member of its family with the sudden death of Ronaldda Pierce, a 6-5 post player from Ashburn, Ga. In 2004-05, the players wore #55 on their shoes in her honor.

The Seminoles paid tribute to Ronaldda by celebrating the time, although too short, that they had with her. In 2005, an award was established in her memory.

While Ronaldda Pierce remains on the minds and in the hearts of those associated with Florida State women's basketball, the 2006-07 season had an even greater meaning as it would have represented Ronaldda's senior season. Members of her recruiting class, Nikki Anthony, Shante Williams and Alicia Gladden, proudly hold up their hands signifying the No. 55; Ronaldda's jersey

HALL OF FAME

The Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame enjoys a rich tradition. Florida State is fortunate to enjoy an athletics program that reflects the integrity achieved by an academic institution with over 150 years of success.

There are 270 members of the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame. The first and largest class was inducted in 1977 and there has been a class inducted every fall since with the exception of 1996 when Florida State spent the year celebrating its 50th Anniversary of athletics.

Four former women's basketball greats, Sue Galkantas, Tia Paschal, Wanda Burns-Jackson and Brooke Wyckoff are members of the Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame.

SUE GALKANTAS HALL OF FAME 1989

Florida State may never forget the scoring power of Sue Galkantas, who with an amazing 2,323 career points, is the most prolific scorer in Seminole basketball history. That total is the most points ever scored by a player, male or female — in Florida State history.

By the time Galkantas graduated in 1984, her name was listed in nearly every statistical category in the FSU records book. Averaging 19.4 points per game in her career — a mark that still ranks number one on the career lists — was just a glimpse of the impact that she had as a Seminole. In her rookie year, she broke the FSU freshman scoring record and was named a freshman All-American in numerous publications. By her sophomore year, Galkantas had already scored her 1,000th point and established herself as one of the top 20 scorers in the nation. In her junior season, she led FSU to a 24-6 record and to its first trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Overall, she scored in double figures in 115 of 120 games and still holds six career and single-season records. In 1989, Galkantas also became the first female FSU athlete to have her number retired.

TIA PASCHAL HALL OF FAME 1999

The Florida State women's basketball program enjoyed its greatest success during the four-year career of Tia Paschal, who lettered for the Seminoles from 1989 to 1993.

A forward from Thomson, Ga., Paschal was an immediate contributor for Florida State and was a three-year starter after averaging 20 minutes of play as a rookie. She ended her career averaging 19.4 points and 7.4 rebounds as a senior while earning first team All-ACC honors and second team All-America honors by the American Women's Sports Federation. During her career, she helped lead the Seminoles to two consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances in 1989-90 and 1990-91 as well as a Metro Conference championship in the 1990-91 season.

Paschal's versatility made her a weapon in every facet of the game which is evident by the records she still holds at Florida State. She holds the records free throws made (14) in a game and is second for steals in a career (269). Paschal is also among FSU's top 10 in five season and six career records and ranks second all-time in scoring with 1,662 points.

Honors came in abundance for Paschal throughout her career. After redshirting the 1988-89 season with a knee injury, Paschal took the conference by storm as a freshman, earning Metro Conference All-Rookie Team honors. She earned Metro All-Tournament Team honors two seasons and was twice named the conference Player of the Week.

Paschal continued playing the game that she loves professionally. Since her graduation in criminology in 1993, Paschal's professional overseas experience has included stops in Germany, Sweden and Spain. She also played one season with the Charlotte Sting of the WNBA.

WANDA BURNS HALL OF FAME 2006

Wanda Burns overcame adversity to become a successful women's basketball player at Florida State. One of Marynell Meadors first recruits, Burns was a highly-touted 5-8 guard out of Macon, Georgia.

Though she carried a 3.0 GPA in high school, her SAT scores were below the required score to meet the new NCAA Prop 48 rule and she had to sit out her freshman season. Burns used the year to hit the books and get acclimated to campus life.

She hit the court in 1988-89 with something to prove. She averaged 11 points a game and led the team with 92 assists, helping FSU to its first winning season since 1983.

She electrified the team in 1989-90 and sparked FSU to a 21-9 record and to the NCAA Tournament. Burns set an FSU record for free throw percentage and led the team in scoring, three pointers and steals.

In 1990-91, her final season, Burns was named Metro Conference Player of the Week, set a single game record with 10 steals in a game and led the team in three-point shooting. FSU enjoyed one of its most successful seasons with a record of 25-7. Burns led the Metro Conference in scoring at 18.5 points per game and scored double figures in 38 consecutive games. She was named Metro Conference Tournament MVP and Player of the Year and also earned Hanes Her Way NCAA Woman of the Year and Second Team All-American honors.

Burns still ranks among FSU's top 10 in four career and 11 single-season statistical categories.

BROOKE WYCKOFF HALL OF FAME 2011

Florida State women's basketball assistant coach Brooke Wyckoff solidified her place among the all-time great 'Noles in September 2011 with her induction into the Florida State Athletic Hall of Fame.

Wyckoff, who was a star forward for head coach Sue Semrau's first hoops teams from 1997-2001, became the fourth women's basketball player to be inducted into the Hall of Fame on Sept. 2 at a ceremony at the University Center Club, joining Sue Galkantas (Class of 1989), Tia Paschal (Class of 1999) and Wanda Burns (Class of 2006).

"Getting inducted into Florida State's Hall of Fame is the biggest honor I have ever received," Wyckoff said. "It's amazing. It's surreal and an honor to be among the amazing athletes that are in it. It was a great opportunity for me to reflect on my career here, and to thank everybody publicly made it so special."

Wyckoff and the rest of her illustrious class – Tony Brown, Sam Cowart, Marshall McDougall, Stephen Parry, Chris Weinke and Andy Miller – were also honored on Bobby Bowden Field at Doak Campbell Stadium during FSU football's 2011 season-opening football game versus Louisiana-Monroe.

The latest addition to Semrau's coaching staff, Wyckoff was hired by her alma mater this summer. Wyckoff spent nine years in the WNBA, playing for the Orlando Miracle, Connecticut Sun and the Chicago Sky.

Wyckoff was one of the top high school players in the country but chose to leave West Chester, Ohio to play for Sue Semrau and Florida State. She made an immediate impact setting an FSU record with 80 blocked shots as a freshman in 1997.

She went on to earn All-ACC honors as a sophomore and junior and capped her senior season (2001) with first team All-ACC honors as well as All-America honors. She was also FSU's only four-time Academic All-ACC performer and received an ACC postgraduate scholarship.

Wyckoff scored 1,350 points over her storied FSU career and finished as the second best shot blocker the Seminoles have ever produced with 209. She grabbed 804 career rebounds and was also ranked among FSU's all-time Top 10.

Millie Usher

Marynell Meadors

Former Seminoles Sue Galkantas (1980-84), Celia Slater (1983-85), Jan Allen (head coach 1979-86) and Lynn Marnie (1979-83) gathered in Tallahassee in October

CHAMPION COMES HOME

Several former Seminoles came back to campus in October 2004 for the sixth annual Champions Beyond the Game brunch which is an event that honors two Seminole graduates who have excelled in life after collegiate sports are recognized. One pre-scholarship era and one post-scholarship era athlete return to be honored and to share the important lessons learned from being a student-athlete at Florida State and how those lessons have helped them become a success in life. One of that year's honorees was former Seminole women's basketball player Celia Slater. Currently, Slater is the Executive Director of the WinStar Foundation which has two programs — the Coaches Academy and Play with a Purpose. She is also the Special Projects Coordinator for the National Association of Women Athletic Administrators. Some of Slater's accomplishments include: gold medal winner as a member of Team Handball at the 1987 Olympic Festival, the first coach of woman's basketball at the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs, women's basketball coach at Lynn University and was on the staff of the WNBA first ever pre-draft camp.

Florida State fans can follow the Seminoles whether on the road or at home as WNLS-AM (1270) and WFLA-FM (100.7) of Tallahassee will carry every FSU women's basketball game this season.

Every game will also be broadcast over the Internet by accessing www.seminoles.com, the official athletics website of Florida State University.

Ryan Pency will return for his ninth season calling play-by-play for the Florida State women's basketball team. Last season, Pency called his seventh straight NCAA women's basketball tournament. He co-hosts the "Sue Semrau TV Show" and enters his seventh season as the coordinating producer for the Seminole IMG College Sports Network football broadcasts.

This offseason Pency was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Digital Media. As the Assistant Director of Athletics for Digital Media, Pency oversees the official athletics website Seminoles.com. Pency is responsible for identifying and overseeing the execution of an annual strategic new media plan for all intercollegiate athletics teams using original editorial and photographic content, live and on-demand audio/video-streaming and social networking to increase brand awareness, generate revenue and enhance website traffic/user activity.

Since becoming a part of the digital media industry, Pency has launched the successful Seminoles.com podcast channel which has drawn national attention for its content and creativity. He serves as a key liaison for internal and external web development, marketing, social media and video production partnerships. Pency started his career as the Information Technology Manager for Florida State athletics. In 2005, he was named Florida State's first Director of Digital Media. Pency graduated from the University of Central Florida in 2002 where he earned a degree in Radio/TV with a minor in computer science. He went on to receive his master's degree in sport administration from Florida State in 2003, during which time he served as a graduate assistant in the Seminole ticket and business offices.

Joining Pency for the sixth consecutive season in the role of color analyst will be FSU Women's Basketball Director of Basketball Operations Melissa Bruner.

SEMINOLES.COM

Florida State University's official athletics website can be accessed by visiting www.seminoles.com. Women's basketball fans will be able to find pre-game notes, game stories and box scores, updated statistics, features and much, much more

THEACC.COM

The Atlantic Coast Conference official website can be accessed by visiting www.TheACC.com. In addition to links of all 12 ACC school athletic websites, TheACC.com will have an updated basketball release, including stats, following each day of competition. The ACC Player and Rookie of the Week will be posted on Monday afternoons.

MEDIA INFORMATION

A NOTE TO THE MEDIA, FANS AND OPPONENTS

Florida State assistant sports information director Zach Stipe is ready to assist you with any questions or requests you may have about the Florida State women's basketball team. Please do not hesitate to contact the FSU Sports Information office if we can further assist you.

PLAYERS & COACHES INTERVIEWS

All players and coaches interviews should be arranged through the sports information office by contacting Zach Stipe at (850) 645-7683 at least 24 hours in advance. Student-athlete's phone numbers will not be released. Media may not contact any student-athlete through the use of social media, including Facebook and Twitter.

PRESS CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press credentials should be directed to the sports information office. Media representatives should contact Zach Stipe at least 48 hours in advance by calling (850) 645-7683 (office) or (850) 228-7583 (cell), or by e-mailing him at zstipe@fsu.edu. At home games, media will be seated in front of the east stands at the Tucker Center.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers are to contact the SID office, as well. Working area for all photographers will include the floor area at both ends of the court. Television camera persons should abide by the same guidelines as still photographers.

RADIO

A complimentary radio line is available for visiting teams.

GAME OPERATIONS

Pregame notes, rosters and running play-by-play will be provided along with halftime and final statistics. A fax machine also available upon request. Live stats are available on www.seminoles.com for all home games.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Coach Semrau and requested players will be available after a 10-minute colling-off period. No interviews will be given on the floor immediately following the game. The visiting coach and players will be brought in on a request basis only.

TAP STATS

TapStats is an in-game statistical app that can be purchased through iTunes for a one-time price of $4.99. It is compatible with your iPhone or iPad and operates the same way as any other popular live stats program, providing play by play, team and player stats, a score ticker and other essential features. The app requires iOS 3.1 or later on your iPhone and iPad. TapStats displays live data for HOME GAMES only

FOLLOW FSU WOMEN'S BASKETBALL ON TWITTER

Media and fans are encouraged to follow @FSU_WBasketball on the team's official Twitter page for instantaneous information surrounding the squad. Media and fans are also encouraged to follow Coach Semrau on Twitter at @CoachSueFSU.
